

The 17th National Bisexual Convention in Edinburgh

"I had no idea how much fun it would be - after having had to explain myself for so long it's great to be able to walk into a room full of 200 other bisexuals and just be me!"

BiCon 10 participant

The UK National Bisexual Conference has been running since 1984, and provides a unique three day opportunity for bisexuals and their friends to get together, talk, play, and party. Now the last BiCon of the millennium will be in Edinburgh, from 16th-18th July 1999, and we plan to make it the best ever.

Session topics range from personal development to activism to just plain fun, and as well as discussions there'll be a bar, stalls, videos, exhibitions, and outings. And there'll be a party each day so we can carry on into the night.

This is the fifth BiCon to be held in Edinburgh, and should be the largest—we've outgrown all our previous venues! There'll be accommodation for those who need to travel, or you can just attend for one day if you prefer. BiCon has always welcomed newcomers, and as in previous years we will be holding special events for anyone new to bisexuality or who hasn't been to a BiCon before.

For more info send your details with an SAE to:- BiCon 99, BM BiCon, London WC1N 3XX, or phone the Bi Phonenumber on 0131 557 3620 on Thursdays from 7.30 to 9.30pm for details about this and other bisexual events.

BiCon's Web pages are at <http://bi.org/~bicon99/>, e-mail bicon99@bi.org.

Please send me more details about BiCon 1999
